

ACTIVITY REPORT 2018 NSS CELL, BODOLAND UNIVERSITY

Program/Occasion: Life Skill, Leadership and Personality

Development Programme

Venue: Bodoland University, Kokrajhar

Date: 5/01/2018 to 9/10/2018

National Service Scheme, Bodoland University has organized five days training programme on Life Skill, Leadership and Personality Development Programme from 05th to 09th January, 2018 for 100 NSS volunteers under Bodoland University NSS Cell at which 75 NSS volunteers from Bodoland University and invited affiliated colleges took part in the training.

The program commenced with the ceremonial lighting of the lamp by Dr. Sekhar Brahma, Registrar, Bodoland University, filling the room with a warm and inviting glow.

Hon'ble Chief Guest lighting the lamp.

Honble Chief Guest delivering a lecture and inaugurating 5 days training programme.

Volunteers are diligently collecting tracksuits

Volunteers enthusiastically participated in the yoga training, eager to enhance their well-being and share their newfound knowledge with the community. The morning yoga session, fostered a sense of well-being and unity among all participants.

Volunteers participating in morning Yoga session

Interaction session between the resource person and the NSS volunteers, a dynamic exchange of knowledge and ideas unfolded. The resource person, an expert in their field, captivated the volunteer's attention with a compelling and insightful lecture. The volunteers, eager to absorb this wealth of knowledge, actively engaged in the discussion, asking questions and offering their perspectives. This harmonious exchange not only empowered the volunteers with new skills and insights but also fostered a sense of collaboration

Resource person and volunteer's interaction session. Resource person delivering lecture

Resource person delivering lecture.

In the program, the resource person took the stage, delivering an engaging and informative lecture that held the audience in rapt attention. The lecture was a highlight of the programme, provided valuable insights and knowledge on the theme of the programme and also inspired NSS volunteers.

Both males and females NSS volunteers participated in dancing

Volunteers participating in Cultural evening.

A cultural event was organized for the NSS volunteers. The harmonious melodies and showcasing of traditional dance make the program colorful. The combination of dance and song was a breathtaking expression of the volunteers' creativity and dedication. Their performance wasn't just a testament to their talent but also a celebration of the unity, passion, and commitment that define the spirit of the National Service Scheme.

The certificate distribution ceremony at the cultural event was a moment of recognition and appreciation for the participants' outstanding contributions to the event's success.

Hon'ble Chief Guest distributing Certificates to NSS Volunteers

Some of the glimpses of the events:

Some of the glimpses of the events

Dr. H.K. Sahoo, Programme coordinator NSS cell, Bodoland University, delivered a heartfelt and gracious vote of thanks, expressing gratitude to all those who contributed to the event's success.

Program/Occasion: Village Level Awareness Programme

Date: 26 to 27/05/2018

Venue: Magurmari, Kokrajhar.

National Service Scheme, Bodoland University organized Village Level Awareness campaign at Magurmari, Kokrajhar for two days consisting of 10 Programme Officers and 300 NSS volunteers. At the first day, lecture programme on awareness of Health, Sanitation, Human Rights, Education, Drug Abuse & Intoxication is undertaken and on the second day the door to door survey was undertaken with questionnaire.

Day 1

Lecture programme

Resource person, Dr. Amit Swarnakar, Medical Officer, Bodoland University shared some valuable tips and ideas on cleanliness, sanitation, and health awareness, emphasizing the importance of maintaining a hygienic and healthy environment. Followed by Mr. Jitendra Kumar shared some valuable knowledge on Human Rights & Drug Addiction. Followed by Dr. Sibani Basumatary, Assistant Professor, Bodoland University, she shared his insightful knowledge on Awareness of Education & Literacy.

Villagers attending the lecture programme

NSS volunteers distributing refreshment

Day 2

Door to door campaign

On the second day, a comprehensive door-to-door campaign was carried out with the primary aim of assessing households and gaining insight into their socioeconomic status. This grassroots effort provided a snapshot of the area's socio-economic landscape.

Door-to-door campaign by NSS Volunteers

Group Photo

Program/Occasion: World Environment Day Celebration, 2018

Theme: Beat Plastic Pollution

Venue: Bodoland University, Kokrajhar

Date: 05/06/2018

Bodoland University observed World Environment Day with a theme- Beat Plastic Pollution with a host of event as detailed below. Altogether 100 volunteers (50male & 50 female) including Programme Officers have been participated in the event. Prof. Hemanta Kr. Baruah, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of Bodoland University inaugurated the program, Dr. Hare Krishna Sahoo, Programme Coordinator, NSS & Director, Students Welfare, Bodoland University welcomed the gatherings.

Programme officers, Dr. Rajesh Deb Barman, Dr. Hemaprobha Saikia, Dr. Jeemina Baglari and other faculties were present in the programme.

Honble Vice-Chancellor of Bodoland University inaugurated the event by planting a sapling.

Programme Coordinator, NSS, Bodoland University is seen planting sapling with NSS volunteers.

Programme Coordinator, Programme Officers are enjoying the event on the occasion of World Environment Day.

Program/Occasion: International Day of Yoga

Venue: Bodoland University

Date: 21/06/2018

Bodoland University observed International Day of Yoga with a host of event as detailed below. Altogether 80 volunteers (40male & 40 female) including Programme Officers have been participated in the event. Prof. Hemanta Kr. Baruah, Hon'ble Vice-Chancellor of Bodoland University attended the programe as Chief Guest. Dr. Hare Krishna Sahoo, Programme Coordinator, NSS & Director, Students Welfare, Bodoland University welcomed the gatherings.

Programme coordinator, NSS cell, Dr. Harekrishna sahu, and NSS volunteers doing Yoga

Program/Occasion: Awareness Rally On Swacchata Pakhwada

Date: 14/08/2018

Awareness Rally on Swachhta was organized by the NSS Cell, Bodoland University Kokrajhar in connection with the observation of “Swacch Bharat Pakhwada”. The program was conducted in collaboration with Kokrajhar Municipal Board. The rally was flagged off from Bodoland University gate via Debargaon village to St Anns College and Tiniali via Balagaon.

Enthusiastic participants, bearing banners and placards, marched through the streets with infectious energy, drawing the attention of onlookers and passersby. A total of 150(Males) & 150 (Females) NSS volunteers were participated in the rally

Students actively took part in a street cleaning activities, displaying their dedication to upholding an immaculate environment and setting an admirable example for the neighborhood.

Photographs: Intensive cleaning of the localities taken up by the NSS volunteer

Group photo

