About Bodoland University

Bodoland University was established by an act of the Assam Legislative Assembly on 28th February, 2009 with the objective of higher education accessible to students in lower Assam in general and to various communities in Bodoland Territorial Area Districts (BTAD). This is the only University in the region providing quality higher education and plays important role in all round human resource development of the people and the society of the region. The picturesque campus of Bodoland University at Debagaoan in Kokrajhar is surrounded by several institutions of higher education and research. The university offers an ideal environment for academic interaction and exchange of ideas across academic disciplines. The serene surroundings and excellent academic and infrastructural strengths make Bodoland University a perfect academic venue for traditional wisdom and contemporary knowledge.

Google Location Map of Bodoland University

The university is situated at Rangalikhata, Debagaoan, which is approximately 9kms. from Kokrajhar town. The Bodoland Martyrs Cemetery is adjacent to the University campus, the Central Institute of Technology (CIT) is at a stone's throw and the upcoming campus of Medical College is just across the Gaurang river behind the campus of the university. The university is blessed with natural landscape that reflects a living synthesis of people. The construction of academic departments, plant tissue culture cell and botanical garden are underway in the Hadabari site for expansion of the academic activities of the university. The serene surroundings and excellent academic and infrastructural strengths make Bodoland University a perfect place for academic enrichment on traditional wisdom and contemporary knowledge.

The nearest Rupsi airport is at a distance of 66 kms., the Gopinath Bordoloi International Airport, Guwahati is 191 kms. from the Kokrajhar and Bagdogra Airport in West Bengal is at 200 kms. distance. University is well connected by road and rail as well. This is also strategically located at a distance of 45 kms. from West Bengal, 50 kms. from Bhutan and 110 kms. from Bangladesh. This makes Bodoland University possible to cater to the needs of higher education for students from the neighboring countries including Bhutan, Bangladesh and Nepal.

The University Motto, Vision and Mission

Motto

“Shraddhavan labhate jnanam” means people with shraddha (intelligent faith) can only imbibe knowledge.

Vision

Bodoland University aspires to be a leading public university that can indoctrinate moral values, scientific temper, socio-cultural, economic and political leadership qualities into students in order to meet the regional, national and global challenges.

Mission

1. To impart value-based education leading to holistic sustainable development.
2. To conduct need-based location research and development of the highest quality with a wide range of interest.
3. Keeping clear focus on the advancement of technology, efforts to be made to increase efficiency of existing technology, to optimize the use of natural resources and to preserve the environment.
4. To ensure access of all sections of the society for higher education keeping in view the prevailing socio- economic deprivation.
5. To inculcate women empowerment potential through education.
6. To protect, preserve and promote ethics and cultural heritage pertinent to the location in particular and country in general for furtherance of national integrity.
7. To provide up-to-date, relevant and need based knowledge.
8. To promote flexible, effective governance.
9. To create linkage with concerned centres of advancement excellence in the country / abroad.
10. To promote high calibre students who are expected to play leading roles in their chosen carries ensuring and sustainable social actions. The University should be a breeding ground of new generation of human resource who would be job creators, not job seekers.

University Logo

The Logo of Bodoland University presents an eternal epistemological quest. It reflects on the motto of the University, viewed as a temple where knowledge is power, devotion, strength and a journey in the continual wheel of life. Juxtaposing the socio-culture, economic, historical and Indian mythological images of rice grain, the usual pattern of Aronai and the lotus, it respectively stands for hard work, prosperity, art, divinity and purity. The pink Supreme Lotus untouched by the impurities despite growing in the mud encompasses new talents irrespective of one's caste/creed/race/country, representing purity of heart and mind. The blending of traditional instruments like Siphung (flute), Kham (drum), Jotha and Serja (sarangi) resonate a soulful imaginative rhythm encouraging creativity, love and peace. Here the bright yellow colour usually akin to Chinese Dragon, Chinese ancient art and architecture reiterate the Mongoloid affinity of the Bodos and also connects to their traditional dress, weaving and women participation. It is an all-inclusive emblem that disseminates light all around and within us to redeem and master newer horizons in the present and future.

The screenshot shows a Zoom meeting interface. At the top, there are controls for 'Unmute', 'Start Video', 'Security', 'Participants' (23), 'Chat', 'New Share', 'Pause Share', 'Annotate', 'Remote Control', and 'App'. A video thumbnail of Richard Kerridge is visible in the top right corner. The main content area displays three book covers: 'Exposed' by Timothy Clark, 'Hyperobjects' by Timothy Morton, and 'Ecocriticism on the Edge' by Timothy Clark. Below the covers is a quote:

Environmental slogans urge us 'eat less meat and help save the planet', or they follow horrifying predictions of climate chaos with injunctions, no less solemn, not to leave electrical appliances on standby or overfill the kettle. Such language would have seemed surreal or absurd to an earlier generation and enacts a bizarre derangement of scales, collapsing the trivial and the catastrophic into each other. (Timothy Clark, Cambridge Introduction to Literature and the Environment, 136)
