cycle within the same academic year if there are sufficient vacancies.

6. Procedure for admission:

The admission shall be based on the criteria notified by the University, keeping in view the guidelines/norms in this regard issued by the UGC and other statutory/regulatory bodies concerned, and taking into account the reservation policy of the Central/State Government from time to time.

Admission to the Ph. D. programme shall be made as follows:

Group I: University shall admit students who qualify for fellowship/scholarship in UGC- NET/UGC-CSIR NET/GATE/CEED or similar National level tests based on an interview.

and/or

Group II: Eligible NET qualified applicants specified as Category-2 (Eligible for (i) admission to Ph. D without JRF and (ii) appointment as Assistant Professor) and Category-3 (Eligible for admission to Ph. D programme only) as per UGC guidelines.

and/or Group III: The University may admit students through an Entrance Test conducted at the level of the University for Departments where the number of applicants as specified in Group I and Group II above is not sufficient on the recommendation of the concerned DRC. The syllabus for the Entrance Test shall comprise 50% research methodology and 50% subject-specific content.

Students who have secured 50% marks in the entrance test are eligible to be called for the interview.

A relaxation of 5% marks will be allowed in the entrance examination for the candidates belonging to SC/ST/OBC/differently-abled category, Economically Weaker Section (EWS), and other categories of candidates as per the decision of the Commission from time to time.

University may decide the number of eligible students to be called for an interview based on the number of Ph.D. seats available.

Provided that for the selection of candidates belonging to Group II and Group III, a weight age of 70 % for the entrance test score/NET marks and 30 % for the performance in the interview/viva- voce shall be given.

The University shall prepare a combined merit list for applicants from Group I, Group II, and Group III. To ensure a simple and consistent evaluation method, the final scores for all groups shall be normalized on a scale of 100. All candidates' final scores from Group I, Group II, and Group III shall be compiled into a single list on a scale of 100.

The interview/viva voce will be organized by the Department when candidates are mandated to present and discuss their research interests/areas before a duly constituted panel. The DRC will conduct interviews/viva voce for candidates who qualify for fellowships/scholarships through UGC-NET/UGC-CSIR NET/GATE/CEED, and similar national-level tests including international candidates with recognized degrees for admission into the Ph. D programme. The interview/viva voce shall also consider the following aspects:

x. The candidate possesses the competence for the proposed research;
xi. The research work can be suitably undertaken at the department;
xii. The proposed area of research can contribute to new/additional knowledge.
