Office Order

As we all know, on 10th February 2026, Bodoland University successfully conducted a counselling session for participants, providing valuable guidance and support. Following this, the main Debate Competition was held on 12th February, 2026 on the theme, "Have public welfare schemes become merely a tool for grabbing votes in India?". After a thorough discussion between the resource persons and the convener of the Debate Competition, and based on the participants' performance, clarity of thought, strong points/ideas, confidence, response to opponent , time management and clarity of speech, the following participants have been selected for both Hindi and English categories to represent the Bodoland University at the All India Shri Nandlal Gadiya Memorial Debate 2026, which will be held at Mewar University, Rajasthan.

The Bodoland University extends its best wishes to the selected participants.
